

MENTORING CHECK-IN

I met with (person) at (location)
 on (date) at (time) for (duration), and these are the topics and areas that we talked about (check all that apply):

- How is my prayer life
- How is my personal Bible study
- How is my gospel witness, and what gospel opportunities I had in the past week
- Who God is, and what He is doing in my life
- What I learned in the past week (e.g., in classes, assignments, personally)
- Praxis: what I planned; what I did; how I am growing and being challenged
- Relationship and/or communication issues
- How to approach a current conflict biblically
- Problems at Legacy, and what my attitude and (Christ-honoring) response should be
- Struggles, temptations, and/or victories in my life
- Time management; distractions, habits, and/or addictions in my life
- Money management; biblical stewardship
- My talents, personality, and/or spiritual gifts
- My life calling and/or big life decisions (e.g., mission field, marriage, education, career)
- How I can prepare for missional service when I go back to my home church and community

- Making sure that I have a solid and spiritually mature mentor back home, and discussing what that mentoring should look like.
- Whom I could disciple and mentor when I go back home
- (Prayed together)
- (Studied scripture together)
- (Did praxis together)
- Other: _____

During our time together, I estimate that:

- I talked _____% of the time, and
- My mentor talked _____% of the time.

On a 0-10 scale (with "0" being very superficial and/or closed, and "10" being very deep and open), I feel the level of depth and openness in our conversation was a:
